In this Annual Celebration, we are honouring the third centenary of Devi Ahilyabai Holkar's birth, a remarkable woman whose legacy continues to inspire, particularly for future generations of girls. Her story is filled with powerful examples of women's empowerment, including promoting girls' education, leadership, daughters' right to ancestral property, the preservation of cultural heritage, and entrepreneurship. This program aims to demonstrate how an ordinary village girl became an extraordinary & capable administrator. I hope that each of us will carry fond memories of today's cultural show, "Narybhyudaya." Last but not the least

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the management for consistently identifying the needs of our institution and providing the necessary resources for our students. We are grateful for your unwavering support, encouragement, and guidance in enhancing the school's standards and helping us reaching new heights.

My sincere thanks also go to all the parents and staff members who have shown exceptional cooperation & team spirit in running the school.

Once again, I thank all the dignitaries & guests for their valuable time and for gracing this occasion. I also appreciate the support of the ABHSS fraternity, Khel Parisar department & Grasim Industries Ltd.

Life always offers us another chance—it's called "To Move On." So, let's continue this journey together to inspire, innovate, and empower our students to reach new heights."

Jai Hind, Jai Bharat.
